Elena & Donal Day have been organically gardening since 1974. Elena worked for Innisfree for many years and ran a stand at the City Market for Innisfree. Innisfree has since changed to CSA production. But it was too late for Elena she had already falling in love the City Market and it's customers. She continues to sell excess produce from her own garden and make wonderful pies, with seasonal fruit, cakes, and bread. Elena will also be growing produce on their property in Rappahannock County.
