

Mustard Seed Farm

Hadensville, VA

Goochland County

Grows: Unusual Annuals, Perennials, herbs, shrubs, trees.

At the City Market: April—October

Acreage: 5 1/2 acres—1 cultivated
3475 sq ft Greenhouse

Growing Practices: Few insecticides, low toxicity not organic but as few toxic chemicals as possible—I would like to live to a ripe old age.

Michael & Jennifer Mazza named their farm Mustard Seed Farm because of their Christian Faith. They believe that if you trust the Lord Jesus Christ all things are possible. If you want to hear more she would be happy to talk to anyone about it.

We, my husband & I are growing unusual annuals, perennials, herbs and many other items.

Come visit anytime. Call Ahead 804-937-1028 or my hours are Wednesday—Saturday 9:00am—5:00pm. Or www.mustardseedfarmva.org
