Ken & Mary West are first generation farmers. They started farming in 1988. Their farm is about 250 acres with 30-50 in production. They use various farming methods picking the best from each that is the most earth friendly. Ken & Mary won the clean water farm (1997) and conservation farm (2008) for their soil & water district. Farming is not just a job for Ken & Mary it is a way of life.

Maria Ramirez picture above as well has run the Mt Olympus Berry booth at the City Market for at least 6 years.
